

Vermont Care Partners is recruiting for the Director of Developmental Disability Services to provide statewide leadership to designated and specialized service agencies on developmental disability services and public policy including service delivery and payment reform. Duties include advocacy, development of trainings, research, technical assistance and analysis of best practices, program trends, regulation, policy, law and legislation. Preferred qualifications: MA human services, public administration, or related field; Experience in community-based disability services; managing workgroups, programs, policy initiatives; government relations and advocacy. Application due May 28, to Julie@vermontcarepartners.org EOE